I supply those with a "dressed" angel who feel prude about a naked heavenly being - please stitch the dress if you feel embarrassed by a Putto in it's original state.

This design uses the same colors and a slightly larger frame pattern as the Chatelaine Christmas 2010 project, which offers 24 small designs with Xmas motives as well as frames and connectors to stitch for a large picture, small elements or an Advent Calender.

This design will be available for a limited time only and not be contained in the Xmas 2010 project !
